

LEWI Visits David Lam Centre, Simon Fraser University

In picture (from left to right):

Dr Kaxton Y. K. SIU, Associate Director, LEWI, Hong Kong Baptist University

Dr Tek Sheng Kevin LO, Director, LEWI, Hong Kong Baptist University

Prof Michael HATHAWAY, Director, David Lam Centre, Simon Fraser University

Prof Daniel W.L. LAI, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences, Hong Kong Baptist University

Prof Chun YANG, Associate Dean (Research), Faculty of Social Sciences, Hong Kong Baptist University

Dean Lai, Prof Yang, Dr Lo, and Dr Siu have visited Simon Fraser University, one of the seven founding member universities of LEWI. They have visited the David See-Chai Lam Centre for International Communication (DLC) during their stay, a research centre that also bears the namesake of the late David Lam. DLC supports and facilitates research collaboration, networking and building the community of Asia-related scholars across campus and internationally, as well as furthers the involvement of students in educating and researching the Asia-Pacific region.

During their meeting with Prof. Hathway, the Director of DLC, the connection between LEWI and DLC was rekindled. This meeting also fostered closer inter-institutional ties between Hong Kong Baptist University and Simon Fraser University, opening up more opportunities for research and academic exchanges in the future.

(Editor's Note: As of 1st July 2024, the Faculty of Arts and the Faculty of Social Sciences has been consolidated into the new Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. As this article is written on 15th May 2024, please be informed that all previous mentions and affiliations to the Faculty of Social Sciences is to be amended to the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, effective on 1st July 2024.)